HONK WAGONS BUSY

Tear Up Benning Track for Glory of Elks.

TOM MILLER IS A WINNER

Pat Throop Steals the Lazy Bike Event Without Being Bothered by the "Also Rodes"-Wallace E. Hood Has His Own Way in the Star Event for the Grownuns.

Honk wagons put 100 miles of dirt track all to the Virginia road out at Benning yesterday while playing tag at a mile a minute for the glory of driver, car manufacturer, and the grand and glorious order of Elks. These foolish cart races, four in number, were the come-one-comall feature of the second day's programme of the Washington Elks' grand jubile blowout, and proved attractive enough to drag a husky gathering.

Although the winner in each of the events apparently made a cradle robbing out of connecting with the silver cisterns, the excitement attending the anticipation that some cart was about to stumble on the near turn kept the spectators in as pleasurable a state of thrill as though it were a hood-and-hood standoff down the stretch. No one was killed, or even injured, but the public disappointment over this display of negligence was somewhat soothed when one of the bounding buzz wagons was stricken with rear tire bustitis and had to retire, with apologies for the pun. The report that the tire made on its demise wouldn't bear re-

The oval speedway was in sand paper shape when the first batch of racers, three benzine bicycles, took the starter's gun and fussed and expectorated their way around the near turn. A soft spot just at the turn developed under continua scratching into an ulcerated piece of roadway that came near putting the death defyers into a state of chaotic junk.

My, How They Shivered.

Toward the close of the events, it go so that the fair young spectators would shiver in ecstatic horror as each car whirled into the jounce patch and squeal aloud: "Oh, I bet he turns over!" and then, as the car would pass the ordeal chines or under, and Hood had as competitors at the start Harry A. Orme in a big Ford, and John E. Lutz in a merry Oldsmobile. Orme stuck close to Hood for a few laps, but his machine weakened and wouldn't stand the gaff for some reason, probably known only to its makers son, probably known only to its makers gait for fifteen one-mile laps, and then his tire laid down on its rim and job, when four good Elks grabbed the steering wheels of their touring cars and tore when four good Elks grabbed the steering wheels of their touring cars and tore around the oval for ten miles. The starters were Tom Miller, E. H. Neumeyer, jr., Adolph Loehl, and Charles P. Stohlman, who drove Fred H. Geyer's car. Tom Miller took his machine to the front at the start and stayed there. The race was for the place, which Neumeyer took handly from Loehl on the eighth lap. Neumeyer then cut out after Miller, but could not get within his dust cloud.
